

2024 Southeasterns in Coral Springs Learning, Playing, and Having Fun !!

In memory of David P. Wachsman

Several events at Southeasterns 2024 were dedicated to the memory of avid bridge player David P. Wachsman, who passed away on July 3, 2023. Wachsman is survived by his wife Janis and son Todd (right), who both attended the Southeasterns Regional Tournament.

Celebrating Friendship and a New Life Master!

Friends and bridge players (left to right) Karla Mahler, Phyllis Kirwan, Joan Orthwein and Sally Peters gather for wine and a picnic lunch in the bridge room to celebrate Orthwein's new status as a Life Master!

Ready To Compete For Gold!

Wayne Humphrey and Beth Flanigan of Naples, prepare to compete against their opponents in the David P. Wachsman Memorial Soloway Knockout game.

For information about our upcoming Regionals, visit Tournaments.

2024 Southeasterns in Coral Springs! More Fun Playing!

Southeasterns 2024

Learning...

Three interesting workshops!

Robert Buchner, noted teacher from Pompano Bridge Club, taught players how to make better Opening Leads.

Bruce Lang co-owner of Jourdan's Bridge Club and Professional Bridge Player spoke about Redoubles!

Well known teacher and professional bridge player, Linda Green, spoke about Stayman applications.